

Forgiveness at Work

Bible Passages on Forgiveness for Children

Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn others, or it will all come back against you. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven.

If your brother or sister in God's family does something wrong, warn them. If they are sorry for what they did, forgive them. Even if they do something wrong to you seven times in one day, but they say they are sorry each time, you should forgive them. (Luke 6:37, Luke 17:3-4)

When you are praying, first forgive anyone you are holding a grudge against, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your sins, too.

Be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you. Let's not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions. (Mark 11:25, Ephesians 4:32, 1 John 3:18)

Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how often should I forgive someone who sins against me? Seven times?” “No, not seven times,” Jesus replied, “but seventy times seven!”

If you forgive those who sin against you, your heavenly Father will forgive you. But if you refuse to forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins. (Matthew 18:21,22; Matthew 6:14-15)

The Lord is kind and merciful. He is patient and full of love. He does not always criticize. He does not stay angry with us forever. We sinned against him, but he didn't give us the punishment we deserved.

I will blot out your sins for my own sake and will never think of them again. Even if your sins are as dark as red dye, that stain can be removed and you will be as pure as wool that is as white as snow. - God (Psalm 103:8-10, Isaiah 43:25, Isaiah 1:18)
