

Our Anchor Holds!

It's good for us to have a lot of changes, because that drives us closer to the Lord.

"All things change but Jesus never. Change and decay in all around I see, oh Thou who changest not, abide with me!"¹ Things are constantly changing. Everything changes except the Lord. He's the only thing that remains constant.

We can take changes because we have an Anchor that holds us steadfast and sure. We have a Rock that is always solid, that we can always trust. We have that Anchor that keeps us safe and secure all the time, no matter what the waves are like, the constantly changing sea and constantly changing life we live.

We have Someone in whom we can rest reassured, eternally secure, knowing that we don't have anything to worry about. He's going to solve every problem and always meet the need, whatever it is, and keep us safely wherever we are, whatever we're doing.

No matter what happens or where we go or where we live or what the conditions may be, the Lord's still there and He'll always keep us no matter what. We have constant, complete security.

That's the wonderful thing about trusting the Lord!—When you don't know what's going to happen, you just know the Lord's going to somehow work everything out just the way He wants it. He always does!
