

Jesus Turns Water Into Wine

There was a wedding celebration in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration.

The wine supply ran out during the festivities, so Jesus' mother told him, "They have no more wine."

"That's not our problem," Jesus replied. But his mother told the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Standing nearby were six stone water jars. Each could hold twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told the servants, "Fill the jars with water."

When the jars had been filled, he said, "Now dip some out, and take it to the master of ceremonies." So the servants followed his instructions.

When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that was now wine, he called the bridegroom over. "A host always serves the best wine first," he said. "But you have kept the best until now!"
